ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

Recruitment and appointment of trustees

All of the Centre's trustees are appointed or reappointed by the members at the annual general meeting which is held in October/November each year.

Governing document

The Centre is a charitable body and its purpose and administration arrangements are set out in the constitution.

Charitable Purposes

The purposes, as recorded in the constitution, are to promote and encourage the study, practice and knowledge of the visual arts in East Lothian.

Activities and Achievements

The Trustees are pleased to report that this has been a very successful year for the organisation with both membership numbers and class income up on previous years with many classes being completely full. We held a very well supported and attended Members' exhibition at Easter with over 200 high quality entries filling the gallery space on the top floor of the Granary building. A Tutors' exhibition ran over the summer in the John Gray Centre in Haddington to promote the work of PACC and the tutors. Andrew Watson gave a very interesting talk on Winter landscape painting through the ages in December 2022 and thanks to a generous donation, we hope to be able to hold more such talks in the future. Weekend workshops were also held in painting and printmaking.

Looking forward we are offering new classes in knitting and landscape painting in 2023/24.

Membership

In 2022/23 there were 302 paying members along with 13 tutor members and 6 life members. Membership costs £15 per year and this contributes to some of the core costs of running PACC. This represents a slight increase in numbers of paying members from 284 in 2021/22.

Donated facilities

PACC occupies premises in the Elizabeth Hamilton Buildings, Haddington, owned by The Lamp of Lothian Trust which we use rent free. Since 2021 the Lamp also pay for utilities. PACC makes a donation towards the cost of utilities and the upkeep of the building. The Lamp of Lothian Board of Trustees continues to upgrade and improve the facilities of the Poldrate buildings and to provide support to all the users of the buildings. The PACC Committee is very grateful for this support.

Reserves

The Trustees believe that it is appropriate for PACC to maintain a level of reserves sufficient to allow it to cope with changes in demand for its activities, to meet any unforeseen expenditure and to provide resources to replace major items of equipment such as kilns.

There was an excess of receipts over expenditure of £13,064 (2021/22 £5,376) largely as a result of fuller classes and very little expenditure on equipment or kiln maintenance. Reserves are now above their pre-pandemic levels and we are looking to replace and supplement equipment levels in several areas.

At 31 July 2023 there were unrestricted reserves of £37,949 of which £7,825 are earmarked towards the cost of replacing kilns.

Winding up of unincorporated charity

OSCR has consented to the winding up of the previous unincorporated charity and once the bank account has been transferred to the SCIO, the old charity will be removed from the register of Scottish charities.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Poldrate Arts and Crafts Centre SCIO

Registered Charity Number SC048524

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2023 which are set out on pages 1-5

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

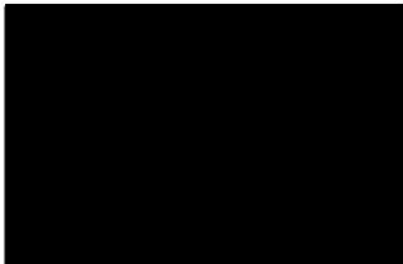

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
