Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations, loans, gifts or pensions to individuals', 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: An independent art trust that promotes and exhibits Scottish, UK, Japanese art and craft through exhibitions and opening the Trust art collection for individuals, groups and academic research when sought.

Beneficiaries: 'People with a particular ethnic or racial origin', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: a) The public education on interrelation between Scotland, the wider United Kingdom and Japan in the world of art through the deepening mutual understanding of the subject and exchanging exhibition programs of arts and crafts. b) The rediscovery of the past heritage of Scotland, the wider United Kingdom and Japan, and recognise the value in the hope of revitalising our present understandings. This we believe will lead to a wider appreciation of the different cultures where we live.
