Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: Pathhead Youth Project exists to support young people in the Tynewater area by providing safe, inclusive spaces for social, recreational, and developmental activities. We run regular drop-in sessions at Pathhead Village Hall, offer sports equipment like table tennis and badminton, and collaborate with other local groups to promote wellbeing. Where possible, we also organise special events and activities during school holidays to further engage young people and support families in the community.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: To promote the benefit of young people, in the Tynewater Area, without distinction of political, religious or other opinions, to advance education and to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation and leisure time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for young people in the area of benefit.
