Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To seek to relieve the suffering of children in Sri Lanka affected by poverty, malnutrition or disease of mind or body.

To provide similar child centred support to other projects in the UK and other countries as these are identified.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

We support children in Sri Lanka and Nepal through education.

We support the provision of medical and humanitarian care in Sri Lanka.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The charity has maintained its activities in Sri Lanka

The charity continues to provide for orphans in Sri Lanka via the Manacare project.

We maintained our support of Sister Mihiri of the sacred heart convent in Galle and her work with Tsunami orphans and in the women's prison in Bhoosa.

The charity also has provided for educational and health support for street children in Kandy, providing funds for the employment of educational and support staff.

The Charity Supports an Orphanage in Nepal through The Child Protection Society Nepal providing funds for education of the orphans.

In Scotland we have supported the work of Craighalbert Centre in Cumbernauld providing practical and emotional support to children with special needs.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Where practicable the charity aims to spend funds raised quickly although occasionally our balance will rise in order to raise sufficient funds to meet outlay on a larger project.

The charity does not have nor intends to have any overdraft at any time.

Details of any deficit

Although there was a deficit in the year, the charity still has sufficient cash reserves to cover it.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

The trustees donate their time and some minor cost items such as stationery when necessary.

Accountancy services have been donated in the past by BJM.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
