Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Rudsambee is a small, mixed-voice choir of around 20 members, based on a shared love of a cappella singing. We rehearse weekly and perform approximately six concerts a year. Our aim is simple: to share with others the joy we experience through singing together. Our repertoire is wide and eclectic, ranging from contemporary compositions and world music to Renaissance pieces - essentially, anything that inspires us. We sing for the sheer pleasure of it, for the camaraderie, for the technical challenge, and to deliver performances of real quality. While we strive only to cover our running costs through concert proceeds, we regularly donate part or all of the income to charitable causes.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To advance the education of the public in the art of music, particularly, but not exclusively through a cappella (unaccompanied) singing.
