Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education'

What the charity does: No-one in the world should be excluded from education through lack of technology. We collect and refurbish end-of-life laptops and other devices, and donate them to combat digital exclusion*. A hidden sector of society is being left behind – those who don’t have a device or internet access. At the same time, millions of useable devices are discarded by people and organisations on the endless upgrade cycle. We exploit this irony to the full! We collect discarded devices, refurbish them and donate them to digitally excluded people. Our focus is on education.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people','Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: To advance education and welfare anywhere in the world by sourcing, refurbishing and providing computers, related equipment and support services to educational establishments, community organisations, NGOs and others working in fields as diverse as education, recreation, environment, human rights, healthcare and welfare. To provide sustainable educational , social and economic benefits to low income families and impoverished communities through the provision of computers and related equipment and thereby to assist in combating the digital divide. To protect and enhance the environment by ensuring appropriate recycling of computers and related equipment which can no longer be refurbished . To provide computer and IT services of all kinds to charities and voluntary organisations so as to assist them in their effectiveness and efficiency.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
