Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: The company's objects and principal activities are: • The relief of poverty • The advancement of education • The advancement of environmental protection or improvement. These objects are all to be based in the State of Israel and where appropriate by supporting relevant charitable projects of Keren Kayemeth Lelsrael (KKL Israel). KKL Israel is an Israeli body corporate limited by guarantee without share capital which was established in 1901. It is dedicated to developing the land of Israel. Further details are at www.kkl.org.il. KKL Israel is one of the two founding members, and remains a corporate member of KKL (Scotland) Charitable Trust. The charity receives donations and legacies from its supporters and also runs events to raise funds and two appeals for donations each year.

Beneficiaries: 'People with a particular ethnic or racial origin', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community', 'Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: 1) To promote the advancement of environmental protection or improvement by supporting charitable projects within the State of Israel, particularly but not exclusively those carried out by Keren Kayemeth Lelsrael which promote the environmental reclamation of the lands of the State of Israel, the afforestation of the land, the preparation of the land to consolidate agricultural and urban settlement, the building of water reservoirs, the rehabilitation of rivers, the preservation of open spaces for the benefit of the public and other projects to enhance the physical and natural environment of the State of Israel for the benefit of all its residents. 2) To advance the education of the public in the State of Israel and worldwide in relation to the environmental reclamation and development of land, in particular but not exclusively in relation to the environmental reclamation and development of the lands of the State of Israel, and in relation to the role and importance of afforestation and water conservation and other forms of ecological conservation in order to improve the natural environment of the State of Israel and the quality of life of its residents, where appropriate, by supporting relevant charitable projects of Keren Kayemeth Lelsrael. 3) The prevention or relief of poverty in the State of Israel, where appropriate, by supporting relevant charitable projects of Keren Kayemeth Lelsrael. 4) To advance such other similar charitable objects for the benefit of the public, particularly but not exclusively the residents of the State of Israel, as the Trustees may determine.
