Governing document:

The Church is administered in accordance with the Constitutional Practice and Discipline of the Methodist Church.

Recruitment and appointment of Trustees:

Members of the Church Council are the Charity Trustees. The Trustees comprise of minister in pastoral charge and members of Church Council appointed in accordance with the Constitutional Practice and Discipline of the Methodist Church.

Organisational structure:

The Church Council members are the Trustees of the charity and Managing Trustees of any property and Model Trust monies (the Custodian Trustees for property and Model Trust monies are the Trustees for Methodist Church Purposes – Charity number: 1136358, a body corporate established by the Methodist Church Act 1939). The Trustees meet at least two times a year.

The church is part of the Forth Valley Circuit (31/3) (Scottish Charity SC037950), which in turn is part of the Synod of the Methodist Church in Scotland (Scottish Charity SC038098) of the Methodist Church in Great Britain (Charity number: 1132208).

Objectives and activities:

The Church, in accordance with procedures for, and priorities set by, The Methodist Church, provides appropriate support towards the advancement of religion in Tranent and Cockenzie (East Lothian).

Achievements and performance:

All the foregoing activities have continued to be pursued during the financial year.

Financial review:

The principal source of income is the regular giving of church members and attendees at church services. There is no property management, as building is rented from Forth Valley Methodist Circuit (Scottish Charity SC037950).

Reserves policy:

A reserve is an unspent pool of money for which no particular purpose has been identified for the time being. This is in addition to money prudently set aside for known future expenditure. At Year End the Church's reserves (by this definition) stood at £3,669 plus designated funds.

Risk Assessment:

The Trustees have conducted a review of the major risks to which the church assets are exposed, and systems have been established to mitigate these risks.

Taxation:

The church is a charity and is recognised as such by HM Revenue and Customs for taxation purposes. As a result, there is no liability to taxation on any of its income.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities:

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which show a true and fair view of the situation of the charity and its financial activities for that period. In preparing those financial statements the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operational existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees at their meeting on 11 OCTOBER 2015 and signed on their behalf by:

A. JAMES PATRON BELL

Minister in Pastoral Charge

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT ON THE UNAUDITED ACCOUNTS TO 31 AUGUST 2025

To the Trustees of Tranent Methodist Church

I report on the financial statements of Tranent Methodist Church ("The Church") for the year ended 31 August 2025 which are set out on page 5.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Independent Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The Trustees consider that the audit requirement Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether or not particular matters have come to my attention.

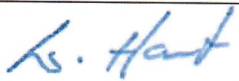

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

During my examination no matter has come to my attention –

- 1) which give me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - a. to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended), and
 - b. to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulation (as amended) have not been met, or
- 2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
