Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of its Constitution.

Aim and Affiliation

The Free Church of Scotland currently has around 100 congregations in Scotland, as well as one in London, and sister Churches founded by mission work in India, Peru and South Africa. The Church also has a full time degree awarding Seminary in the heart of Edinburgh for the training of Ministers and other Christian workers and sustains an extensive Missionary program relative to the size of the Church.

Dating from 1843 but with its roots in the Reformation, it owes its distinctive title to its historical struggle to remain 'free' from state interference in its internal affairs. It has close and active relations with many other Reformed churches of Jesus Christ throughout the world and stands firmly in the tradition which accepts the Bible in its entirety as the Word of God and, therefore, derives its forms of teaching, worship, ministry and government from it. The main emphasis of our worship is the preaching of the gospel – the good news of a free and sovereign salvation through Jesus Christ alone.

The Free Church of Scotland is a presbyterian church adhering in its worship and doctrine to the position of the Church of Scotland at the Reformation. There is an explanatory document which explains the origins of the Church and which gives the historical background of the Church coming into being in 1843 and lists documents in which is embodied its constitution.

Plockton & Kyle Free Church of Scotland is a congregation of the national Free Church of Scotland working towards the common aims set out above. The congregation is within the Skye & Wester Ross Presbytery and is authorized by the Church to have a minister paid from the central funds of the Church.

The Church buildings, church hall and the Minister's Manse are the property of the congregation and are held in trust by locally elected property trustees under the Church's Model Trust Deed.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

The Kirk Session exercises its discretion in determining the most appropriate method of electing Trustees (Elders and Deacons). Any election process must involve the communicant membership of the congregation. There is no fixed term for Trusteeship. Prior to their appointment, new Trustees would have served the Church for some time in various roles and would be familiar with the Church's values, its aims and objectives as well as its day-to-day operations. As part of their induction program, new Trustees are required to understand their statutory responsibilities as well as the responsibilities of their office within the congregation as elder or deacon.

Organisational Structure

The congregation is governed and administered by elected office bearers (all volunteers) and its Minister. The Kirk Session, being the Minister and elected elders, has responsibility for spiritual oversight, while the Deacons' Court, composed of Kirk Session members plus elected deacons, oversee financial and property matters. Under Charity Law, the Deacons' Court are deemed to be trustees of the congregation as those with responsibility for day to day management and control. This is distinct from the role of property (congregational) trustees who are responsible only for holding property in trust.

Objectives and Activities

Once again the charity trustees were very grateful to the congregation for their generous giving throughout 2024.

They sought to attend to numerous issues of buildings maintenance and repair during the year. In conjunction with their architect they brought the planning application for the Plockton garden ground close to readiness.

They also oversaw the installation of a defibrillator at the Kyle church.

Some new property trustees were appointed in response to a couple of resignations, and the trustees completed their entry in the Scottish Government's Register of Persons with a Controlling Interest in Property.

A new treasurer was also appointed.

An ongoing issue with SSE Energy Solutions relating to an incorrectly adjusted direct debit spanning several years is likely to lead to a future estimated liability in the region of £6,000 to £7,000. Despite numerous attempts to resolve the issue SSE has provided no information or assistance. Attempts to bring this matter to a close are ongoing.

Financial Review

The principal source of income is free will offerings. The total this current year was £40,267 (2023 £45,554). Income from HMRC against gift aided donations and other donations was £10,984 (2023 £14,854). A surplus of £9,323 (2023 £10,501) was achieved.

Reserves Policy

It is the Trustees' policy to hold in reserve any monies that might be required to cover future expenditure. The balance of unrestricted funds as at end of December 2024 is £49,030 (2023 £43,036).

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The members of the Kirk Session / Deacons' Court must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The members of the Kirk Session / Deacons' Court are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2007. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf by:

Report of the Independent Examiner

I report on the financial statements of Plockton & Kyle Free Church of Scotland for the year ended 31 December 2024 as set out on pages 5 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of regulations 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records.

It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
