Kirkcaldy Free Church of Scotland

For the year ended 31 December 2024

The Trustees are pleased to present their report together with the financial accounts of the church for the year ended 31st December 2024.

Status of Charity and Governing Document

Kirkcaldy Free Church of Scotland is established by Constitution. The church is a Scottish Charity (No. SC038150).

Aims and Affiliation

The Free Church of Scotland currently has around 100 congregations in Scotland, as well as in London and North America, and sister Churches founded by mission work in India, Peru and South Africa. The Church also has a full time college in the heart of Edinburgh for the training of Ministers and other Christian workers and sustains an extensive Missionary programme relative to the size of the church.

Dating from 1843 but with its roots in the Reformation, it owes its distinctive title to its historical struggle to remain 'free' from state interference in its internal affairs. It has close and active relations with many other Reformed churches of Jesus Christ throughout the world and stands firmly in the tradition which accepts the Bible in its entirety as the Word of God and, therefore, derives its forms of teaching, worship, ministry and government from it. The main emphasis of our worship is the preaching of the gospel - the good news of a free and sovereign salvation through Jesus Christ alone.

Kirkcaldy Free Church of Scotland is a congregation of the national Free Church of Scotland working towards the common aims set out above. It is a Presbyterian church adhering in its worship and doctrine to the position of the Church of Scotland at the Reformation. The Free Church of Scotland has an explanatory document which explains the origins of the Church and which gives the historical background to the Church coming into being in 1843 and lists documents in which is embodied the constitution of the Church.

The congregation is authorised by the Church to have a minister paid from central funds of the Church.

The Church building and the Minister's manse are the property of the congregation and are held under the Church's model trust deed.

The government of the Free Church of Scotland is Presbyterian and the congregation is within the Presbytery of Edinburgh & Perth.

Trustees and Office Bearers

The church is Presbyterian in government and its day to day running is undertaken by the Elders (the Kirk Session) and the Deacons (the Deacons' Court). The Deacons' Court's specific function relates to the material and financial business of the congregation, whereas Elders are charged with the general and spiritual oversight of the congregation. It is accepted practice for the Minister and Elders to also be in membership of the Deacons' Court. Under charity law the Deacons' Court are deemed to be the Trustees of the Congregation. (This is distinct from the role of congregational trustees responsible only for holding property in trust).

The Deacons' Court (the Trustees) that served during the year consisted of:-

Congregational Trustees

For holding Property – [REDACTED]

Appointment of Charity Trustees

The Kirk session exercises its discretion in determining the most appropriate method of electing new Trustees (Elders and Deacons). Any election process must involve the communicant membership of the congregation. There is no fixed term for Trusteeship. Prior to their appointment, new Trustees would have served the church for some time in various roles and would be familiar with the church's values, its aims and objectives as well as its day-to-day operations. As part of their induction programme, new Trustees are required to understand their statutory responsibilities as well as their responsibility as elder or deacon.

Achievements and Performance

The congregation continued its commitment to support the national Free Church of Scotland both spiritually and financially.

Significant highlights, events and developments of note in the year include the following: -

We are delighted that [REDACTED] was ordained as an elder in Kirkcaldy Free Church on Sunday the 14th of July 2024 and now joins the session.

In relation to congregational activities:

- The church continues to actively support a new church plant in Leven (Leven Free Church) through finance, prayers and by encouraging church members in that locality to move church in order to support this new venture.
- Our vision statement continues to be promoted through thematic sermons and through short video messages.
- The church has been encouraging members to engage in evangelism through church-based events, such as our community meals with a guest speaker and a guest service at Christmas.
- The church continues to meet weekly to pray, alternating between in-person meetings and online meetings.
- We have used our website and facebook page to promote the work of the church, record services, share prayer requests, and to learn new tunes for our praise.
- The church family persists in using their gifts in order to support one another, the local community and those further afield. Our fortnightly community café continues to reduce isolation and promote community in the local area.
- As well as continuing to support the church plant in Leven, we have also supported our own children by helping with their fees for Free Church summer camps. We have supported other Scottish charities through one-off collections. The Blythwood shoebox appeal was highly successful, with over 40 boxes collected. We continue to collect for the local food bank.
- The church continues to enjoy church lunches in order to develop closer relationships within our church community. We have also done this through women's meals and a men's barbecue.
- We have invited guest preachers from other parts of our denomination in order to learn more about the work of the church nationally.
- In September, we had our first church concert, with music from those within the church and also from the Songburds, a local community choir.
- Our minister has become a padre at the local branch of the air cadets which involves visiting the cadets on a monthly basis.

In relation to congregational funding:

- Donations from church members via weekly offerings, monthly standing orders and Gift Aid tax reclaim;
- The Church was able to support several children financially to help with the costs of sending their children to Free Church camps and Teen Ranch; and
- The church continued to financially support church plants, including Leven Free Church.

Results for the year

The financial accounts for the year are set out on pages 7 to 10. The receipts and payments account (page 7) reflects net incoming resources of £33,760 (2023: net incoming resource of £23,618).

Reserves

It is the policy of the congregation to maintain unrestricted funds, i.e. funds not committed or invested in fixed assets, at a level which equates to approximately three months unrestricted expenditure. This allows sufficient funds to enable the ongoing work of the church to be maintained. The General Fund at 31 December 2024 amounted to £32,233 (2023: £30,449) and was above the required level.

Total reserves, including balances on restricted funds amounted to £112,943 (2023: £79,183).

Grant Making Policy

The congregation makes grants from its gift income to individuals and organisations whose aims are compatible with the congregation's objectives.

Kirkcaldy Free Church of Scotland

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees

I report on the accounts of the church for the year ended 31 December 2024, which are set out on pages 7 – 10.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - To keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
 - To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations.

have not been met, or

2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
