The Trustees are pleased to present their report together with the financial statements of the church for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Status of Charity and Governing Document

Glengeld & Armisdale, Lochalsh & Glenshiel Free Church of Scotland is established by Constitution. It is a registered Scottish Charity (No. SC038152).

Aims and Affiliation

The Free Church of Scotland currently has around 100 congregations in Scotland, as well as two in London and five in North America, and sister Churches founded by mission work in India, Peru and South Africa. The Church also has a full time degree awarding college in the heart of Edinburgh for the training of Ministers and other Christian workers and sustains an extensive Missionary programme relative to the size of the church.

Dating from 1843 but with its roots in the Reformation, it owes its distinctive title to its historical struggle to remain 'free' from state interference in its internal affairs. It has close and active relations with many other Reformed churches of Jesus Christ throughout the world and stands firmly in the tradition which accepts the Bible in its entirety as the Word of God and, therefore, derives its forms of teaching, worship, ministry and government from it. The main emphasis of our worship is the preaching of the gospel - the good news of a free and sovereign salvation through Jesus Christ alone. The Free Church of Scotland is a Presbyterian church adhering in its worship and doctrine to the position of the Church of Scotland at the Reformation. There is an explanatory document which explains the origins of the Church and which gives the historical background to the Church coming into being in 1843 and lists documents in which is embodied its constitution.

Glengeld & Armisdale, Lochalsh & Glenshiel Free Church of Scotland is a congregation of the national Free Church of Scotland working towards the common aims set out above. The congregation is within the Skye & Wester Ross Presbytery. It is now overseen by its own minister.

The Glengeld church building and the Ardelve manse are the property of the congregation and are held in trust by locally elected property trustees under the Church's Model Trust Deed.

Trustees and Office Bearers

The congregation is governed and administered by elected office bearers (all volunteers) and the minister who oversees it. The Kirk Session, being the minister and elected elders, has responsibility for spiritual oversight, while the Finance Committee, which comprises Kirk Session members plus personnel elected from within the congregation and by the congregation, oversees financial and property matters. Under Charity Law, members of the Finance Committee are deemed to be the trustees of the congregation as those with responsibility for day to day management and control. This is distinct from the role of property (congregational) trustees who are responsible only for holding property in trust.

Appointment of Charity Trustees

The Kirk Session exercises its discretion in determining the most appropriate method of electing new Trustees (Elders or other members of the Finance Committee). Any election process must involve the communicant membership of the congregation. There is no fixed term for Trusteeship. Prior to their appointment, new Trustees would have served the Church for some time in various roles and would be familiar with the Church's values, its aims and objectives as well as its day-to-day operations. As part of their induction programme, new Trustees are required to understand their statutory responsibilities as well as the responsibilities of their office within the congregation as elder or deacon.

Activities and Achievements

The congregation continues to meet regularly for public worship and carry out various activities in pursuit of the above stated aims.

The congregation continued its commitment to support the National Free Church of Scotland both spiritually and financially.

The Kirk Session continues to do their best to lead, grow, build up, encourage, pastor and serve the congregation. We were delighted to welcome [REDACTED] as our new minister this year after a prolonged vacancy.

The Finance Committee now takes care of the manse as it is used by our new minister and his family and continue to maintain the building. The Finance are currently exploring options for the Gleneig church building and site having recently acquired congregational permission to explore the sale of the property.

The congregation continue to move forward and review our Ministry Plan and to prayerfully seek ways of involving the entire congregation in the life and work of the church and ways to reach out with the gospel as a Healthy Gospel Church for our community. We have been blessed to see new members and attendants in the recent months.

I report on the accounts of the church for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 5 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiners' Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:-

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
