Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland located on the West Side of the Island of Lewis serving the villages of Shawbost, Bragar and Arnol. There are church services every Sunday, one in the morning and one in the evening along with an evening Gaelic service once a month in Bragar. There are also weekly Prayer Meetings each Wednesday. Communion services take place twice a year which include services on a Friday and a Saturday. A Sunday School takes place during the morning service on a Sunday during term time and various fellowships take place from time to time. The church also provides funeral services, weddings and baptisms as requested. From time to time we have retiring collections to support various Christian Organisations and those in our congregation facing difficulties.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people','No specific group, or for the benefit of the community','Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: The Congregation aims to maintain the public worship of God and to foster Christian fellowship. to evangelise the local area by proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ, to exercise pastoral care and practical compassion for those in need. to uphold and further the interests of the Free Church of Scotland. and to participate in the worldwide promotion of Christian fellowship and the advancement of the Christian faith. All the business and proceedings of the Congregation shall be conducted in accordance with the constitution of the Free Church of Scotland, under the supervision of the Presbytery of the bounds, and in terms of the Acts, deliverances or directions of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland.

The Trustees are pleased to present their report together with the financial statements of the church for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Status of Charity and Governing Document

Shawbost is a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland established by Constitution. It is a registered Scottish Charity (No. SC038184).

Aims and Affiliation

The Free Church of Scotland currently has around 100 congregations in Scotland, as well as one in London and three in North America, and sister Churches founded by mission work in India, Peru and South Africa. The Church also has a full time degree awarding Seminary in the heart of Edinburgh for the training of Ministers and other Christian workers and sustains an extensive Missionary programme relative to the size of the church.

Dating from 1843 but with its roots in the Reformation, it owes its distinctive title to its historical struggle to remain 'free' from state interference in its internal affairs. It has close and active relations with many other Reformed churches of Jesus Christ throughout the world and stands firmly in the tradition which accepts the Bible in its entirety as the Word of God and, therefore, derives its forms of teaching, worship, ministry and government from it. The main emphasis of our worship is the preaching of the gospel - the good news of a free and sovereign salvation through Jesus Christ alone.

The Free Church of Scotland is a Presbyterian Church adhering in its worship and doctrine to the position of the Church of Scotland at the Reformation. There is an explanatory document which explains the origins of the Church and which gives the historical background to the Church coming into being in 1843 and lists documents in which is embodied its constitution.

Shawbost is a congregation of the national Free Church of Scotland working towards the common aims set out above. The congregation is within the Western Isles Presbytery and is authorised by the Church to have a minister paid from the central funds of the Church.

The Church building and the Minister's manse are the property of the congregation and are held in trust by congregational trustees under the Church's Model Trust Deed.

Trustees and Office Bearers

The Congregation is governed and administered by elected Office bearers (all volunteers) and its Minister. The Kirk Session, being the Minister and elected Elders, has responsibility for spiritual oversight, while the Deacons' Court, composed of Kirk Session members plus elected Deacons, oversees financial and property matters. Under Charity Law, the Deacons' Court is deemed to be the Trustees of the Congregation as those with responsibility for day to day management and control. This is distinct from the role of congregational trustees who are responsible only for holding property in trust.

The members of the Deacons' Court (the Trustees) who served during the year were as follows:-

Deacons' Court

Minister

Vacant

Interim Moderator

Elders

Deacons

*Report of the TrusteesAppointment of Charity Trustees

The Kirk Session exercises its discretion in determining the most appropriate method of electing new Trustees (Elders and Deacons). Any election process must involve the communicant membership of the congregation. There is no fixed term for Trusteeship. Prior to their appointment, new Trustees would have served the Church for some time in various roles and would be familiar with the Church's values, its aims and objectives as well as its day-to-day operations. As part of their induction programme, new Trustees are required to understand their statutory responsibilities as well as the responsibilities of their office within the congregation as elder or deacon.

Remittances to Central Funds

The Congregation contributes to the central funds of the Free Church of Scotland on the basis of the remittances scheme approved by the General Assembly. A new Remittances Scheme was introduced in January 2010. The main elements of the system are as follows:

Each congregation will pay a levy to cover the costs of local ministry. The Ministry Levy will include the Minister's stipend and employer's National Insurance, etc. Each congregation will also pay a percentage of the central administration costs of the Church, along with a contribution towards the cost of the Free Church pension scheme and that of training. This Administration and Training Levy will be based on the budgeted administration costs for the year and will be calculated on the basis of the level of congregational income in the previous year.

After paying the Ministry Levy and the Administration and Training Levy, congregations will be given a Fixed Allowance of up to £23,000 for local expenses and projects. All remaining ordinary income will be subject to a Missions Levy which helps to meet the costs of the Church's central activities including Edinburgh Theological Seminary and the Mission Board. This Levy is calculated at 50% for 2024.

Activities and Achievements

During the year, the congregation met regularly for public worship and carried out various activities in pursuit of the above stated aims. The congregation continued its commitment to support the National Free Church of Scotland both spiritually and financially.

The principle congregational activities are the conducting of Public Worship on the Lord's Day, weekly Prayer Meetings and Bible Study at Shawbost and Bragar, Crèche, Sabbath School, Congregational Fellowship, Local Evangelism, Live Stream and Sermon Audio.

In relation to congregational funding there was a small decrease in donations from church members via weekly offerings and Gift Aid donations.

ReservesResults for the year

As a result of a surplus for the year on unrestricted funds of £796 (2023 - £12,741 deficit) the Congregation held unrestricted funds amounting to £1,662 (2023 - £866) at the year end. This consisted of a General Fund amounting to £1,083 and Designated Funds of £579. The Congregation also held restricted funds amounting to £75,014 (2023 - £57,627) at the year end.

The Trustees are satisfied with the level of reserves retained by the charity.

Report of the Independent Examiners to the Trustees

I report on the accounts of the Free Church Congregation of Shawbost for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 5 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiners' Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to the Financial Statements *for the year ended 31 December 20241. Accounting PoliciesAccounting Convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice – Accounting and Reporting by Charities (revised 2006).

Basis of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared on a receipts and payments basis.

Fixed Assets

The Congregation owns the Church and Manse buildings at Shawbost. The title deeds are held in terms of the model trust deed of the Free Church of Scotland. While they remain the Congregation's properties, the permission of the General Assembly is required before they can be disposed of.

The Manse was informally valued by Court Members at 31 December 1993, on the basis of sales of similar property, at £100,000 and is shown at this amount in the Balance Sheet. The Church has not been valued in view of the limited market available and is not included in the Balance Sheet.

The Manse and Church are insured for £1,626,330 on a reinstatement basis. The policies are index linked.

Receipts and Payments Account

For the purpose of the Receipts and Payments account as shown on page 5, funds are defined as follows:

Unrestricted funds comprise income received for the objects of the church without further specified purpose and are available as general funds.

Designated funds represent unrestricted funds which have been earmarked by the Trustees for particular purposes.

Restricted funds comprise grants and income which has been received for the objects of the church and specified for a restricted purpose within these objects by the donor.
