Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Sgioba Drama Uibhist is a community organisation which aims to promote Gaelic drama. We select a play each year which we produce in Scottish Gaelic with a view to taking part in the National in October. The team is open to all. We then perform our play along with other artistes in our own area and further afield.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the group shall be: 1. To promote and encourage the development of Gaelic drama throughout Uists. 2. To publicly stage Gaelic drama in locations throughout the Highlands and Islands.

Geography

- Main operating location: Western Isles
- Geographical spread: More than one local authority area in Scotland
