Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage', 'any other purpose that may reasonably be regarded as analogous to any of the preceding purposes'

What the charity does: The listed Lambhill Stables building, on the banks of the Forth and Clyde Canal, is a unique and picturesque setting where the charity works towards improving the quality of life for all ages and abilities in Lambhill and neighbouring communities. Lambhill Stables provides opportunities for learning new skills, taking part in creative and social activities and caring for the environment. This is delivered through a community garden, lunch clubs, a cafe and kitchen, a bike hub, a history and heritage group, and art and knitting groups. An important strand of work is the charity's engagement with local young people through its own youth clubs and related activities. A significant number of volunteering opportunities is provided across the range of Lambhill Stables' activities. The charity is active in meeting the challenges presented by unemployment, ill health, financial hardship, isolation, educational disadvantage and environmental degradation.
