Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation'

What the charity does: The Relationships Scotland National Office in Edinburgh supports our network of Member Services. The National Office provides training, professional development and quality assurance of our practitioners and Member Services. We are a national voice for relationship support and we work closely with the Scottish Government to influence political and legislative policy development. We provide professional training in counselling and mediation, as well as supporting our member services to deliver relationship services throughout Scotland.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'Other defined groups', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community', 'Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: to relieve the needs and promote the welfare of families, individuals and children affected by relationship difficulties by promoting, developing and co-ordinating support services, principally family mediation, child contact centres and confidential counselling services
