What the charity does: Girlguiding is the leading charity for girls and young women in the UK. Thanks to the dedication and support of volunteers, we are active in providing girls and young women with a safe space to be themselves, have fun, build valuable life skills, and make a positive difference in their lives and communities. We boost girls' confidence and raise their aspirations by offering experiences, activities, and courses during weekly sessions and throughout the academic year. We give them the opportunity to discover their full potential and encourage them to be a powerful force for good. friendships, ac
