Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: The charity is set up to promote the work of William Soutar to the general public in Scotland and beyond, bring his poetry to a new readership, and gain wider recognition of his contribution to the Scots language and its literature. The Friends of William Soutar Society carries out artistic, literary and scholarly activities to support these objects. This includes research, holding talks and lectures, public readings, dramatic performances, visual arts, publishing new anthologies and works, extending schools' curricula and materials, and supporting new creative writing inspired by Soutar and his birthplace.

Beneficiaries: 'People with a particular ethnic or racial origin', 'Other defined groups', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the society are the advancement of: (a) education (local and national) (b) the arts, heritage, and culture
