Section C Notes to the Accounts

C1 Nature and purpose of funds (may be stated on analysis of funds worksheets)

The unrestricted funds are free will givings from members of the church in the form of offering, tithes, donations, etc. The purpose of the fund is to finance the day-to-day administration of the charity in the propagation of the word of God. The restricted funds are also free will givings from members of the church in the form of offerings, tithe, donations, pledges and gift aid. The purpose of the fund is to help finance church projects for example, welfare and purchases of fixed assets. It also acts as our savings towards the acquisition of our own church building.

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The Embassy of the Word of God is a Charitable unincorporated association, and our purpose and administration arrangements are set out in our constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The trustees are appointed by the Senior Pastor of the Church to act in the interest of the Trust. They serve for a minimum period of a year after which they are either reappointed or replaced by others.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The purpose of the charity is to advance Christianity in order to glorify God and manifest His character.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

In the past 12 month we have continued with our weekly Sunday and Mid-week services to further the vision of the Embassy of the word of God (Edinburgh) which is to send the healing grace to our generation through the preaching of the word of God. Through these services we have been able to reach out to the university student group and have offered them various support through mentorship, buddying them with those who have graduated from similar academic disciplines. Also, through our welfare department we have supported some students with material help. In the past 12 months we also managed to reach out to communities in Corstorphine and Drumbrae (Edinburgh) offering them opportunities to be involved in the activities of the church.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

During the past year the charity received £132,984. Part of this has been saved with the rest being used to pay rent, bills, organising programmes and supporting members as outlined in our annual account. Particularly, we gave out honoraria to guest ministers who we invited for our special programmes throughout the year. Monies were also given out to members who were in need and others who dedicated their babies, married during the year. The church also provided financial support to bereaved families. Unfortunately, during the year the church lost our lead Drummer and took a considerable amount of resources to support the funeral and burial. Also, we also used some of our funds as humanitarian aid/assistance to support other churches and missionaries in Africa and India in their work with children and the elderly. This aid was set out in the payment account section as tithes. Overall, expenditure for the year was £127,710.

During the past year, we had to relocate to a new place of worship, and this resulted in spending considerable amount of money in removing things from our old property to a new one. We also used funds to ensure that the new place is ready for our worship services.

Also, during the past year we organised evangelism programmes and provided healing and counselling support for the people of Corstorphine and its environs. As a result of our ongoing online activities, we have invested substantially in equipment and subscribed to various online services to broadcast our services to many both in the UK and globally.

We have continued Our Life Classes training programmes during the year for the community and have extended it to the larger community of Edinburgh and Glasgow through an Edinburgh-based Christian radio station called Heartsong Christian Radio.

As part of the yearly programmes of our Men/Women Ministries we arranged various educational programmes online to help empower the men and women in the church and the people in our communities on life issues. Through our children ministry we also organised programmes for the children in the community. These were done through summer camps and children's day activities which were patronised by the children in the community as well as those in the church.
