Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: Literacy: The charity actively supports the six local primary schools to assist struggling readers. To do this we run literacy clubs and deliver 1000 hours of volunteer time doing one-to-one reading. Community support: we collaborated with numerous local groups to support those in our community most in need. Poverty action: Launched from the local Food Bank, we run a weekly group to support needy local families, with educational activities and a place for mothers/carers to relax and relate. We provide skills and experience to mothers seeking a return to work by providing volunteer opportunities. Exploring faith: Small group activities.
