Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The Newmachar First Responders was established in 2005 and was recognised as a Scottish Charity with effect from 22 August 2008. The Responders is an unincorporated association and is administered in accordance with the terms contained within its constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The Office Bearers who are the charity's Trustees meet on a regular basis. Appointment and removal of Trustees is in accordance with the guidelines contained within its constitution. The Trustees are elected each year.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The advancement of health and the saving of lives by providing first response medical support and assistance to the Scottish Ambulance Service for the local community of Newmachar and the surrounding area.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Responders carry out services and activities itself for the benefit of the community. The members are all volunteers, and they provide defibrillation, CPR and other life saving interventions in accordance with their training for the benefit of Newmachar community and the surrounding areas of the village. The Responders work in partnership with the Scottish Ambulance Service and aim to provide a fast response service where possible to assist the Ambulance colleagues to increase the chances of saving life.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Achievements and Performance

The Responders continue to provide a good quality of service to the Newmachar community and surrounding areas. We continue to provide CPR and Defibrillator awareness to the local community groups.

Financial Review

The Responder's constitution was updated and approved by OSCR in July 2024 with the financial year end being amended to 31st March annually.

Our main source of income continues to be donations received from local businesses and individuals.

We thank the Newmachar community for its generosity throughout the year and support towards the First Responders. We continue to strive to provide a high standard of first response medical support in return.
