Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: The Oasis Youth Centre is a dedicated community space that includes a rehearsal room and recording studio, gaming and computer room, art room, café and performance area and a hospitality kitchen that are all free for young people to use. All groups within the Oasis seek to support young people to develop their confidence, skills and access to opportunities, as well as be a confidential space where people can access support and information on the issues affecting them. Accredited programmes such as Youth Achievement Awards and Dynamic Youth Awards are also incorporated into groups to recognise young peoples learning and personal development.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: The objects of the project are to promote the benefit of young people in the Dumfries area by associating with the local and statutory authorities, voluntary organisations and inhabitants in a common effort to advance education and to provide or promote the provision of facilities, in the interests of social welfare, for recreation and other leisure time occupation thereby improving the conditions of life of the aforementioned young people and developing their physical, mental and spiritual capacities so that they may grow to full maturity as individuals and members of society and in furtherance thereof.
