Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: It is set up to reduce social isolation for elderly people in Coupar Angus and the surrounding area. We do this by providing a warm space on a monthly basis for afternoon tea parties with entertainment and transport if required. Christmas Lunch and end of session High Tea at local hotel.

Beneficiaries: 'Older People'

Objectives: The objectives for which the association is established are (a) to facilitate social activities for and interaction of the elderly residents of Coupar Angus and (b) to provide friendship and support for them including the provision of regular entertainment and a meeting place and also to do all of the things which would attain the above purposes.
