Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: Our charity helps young people develop their full potential so they become confident, responsible citizens. We provide a structured, age-appropriate programme that encourages learning by doing, teamwork, outdoor adventure, community involvement, and personal responsibility. This includes weekly section meetings, outdoor activities such as camping and hiking, and projects that build citizenship and service. A progressive skills and awards scheme supports personal growth and leadership. Trained adult volunteers deliver activities safely and inclusively, ensuring all young people are welcomed and supported.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: Scouting exists to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The Purpose of The Scout Association is to promote the development of young people in achieving their full physical, intellectual, social and spiritual potentials, as individuals, as responsible citizens and as members of their local, national and international communities. The Method of achieving the Aim of the Association is by providing an enjoyable and attractive scheme of progressive training, based on the Scout Promise and Law and guided by adult leadership.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Scouting provides a progressive non-formal education programme for young people aged generally from 6 to 25. The programme has a core framework based around 6 personal development areas:

- Body – Health and fitness
- Mind – Practical skills and creativity
- Faith and Beliefs – Personal faith, learning about and developing an understanding of other faiths and Scouting values
- Relationships – Personal and Group
- Community – People and service, locally and internationally
- Surroundings – Natural and built environments, sustained development

The programme is delivered with guidance and support of adult volunteers, who are required to meet adult membership commitments to training.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

After a prolonged delay in securing an electricity connection, the Scout Group finally opened its new hall on 9 May 2025. During the five years we were decanted to other Scout halls, membership declined slightly, largely due to the additional travel required. Now that we are back in the village with a hall of our own, every section is full, with waiting lists for some.

The boys and girls have given overwhelmingly positive feedback on the new hall, and our volunteers are equally delighted to be back in a dedicated space that makes planning and running activities far easier.

From the outset, the hall was intended to serve as a community asset as well as a Scout facility, and we are pleased to have several local groups now using it regularly.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Reserves may only be used in the furtherance of Scouting purposes. In the event that the Scout Group should cease to exist, any reserves must pass to the District Treasurer and come under the management of the District Scout Council.

Day	Month	Year		Day	Month	Year
01	Sep	2024	to	31	08	2025
Set out on pages						(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
