APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

There have been a few fund raisers this year with a craft stalls, pizza nights, concerts & Bingo.

The hall is still available for hiring out for private functions.

The hall is used to provide a venue for the local children to have a Halloween party and a Christmas party every year, this is a great opportunity for the community to get together.

The hall continues to be a great place for the community to get together and enjoy family nights, the hall really is the heart of the community.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees have examined the charity's requirements for reserves in light of the main risks to the organisation. They have established a policy whereby the unrestricted funds held by the charity should be between 3 to 6 months of expenditure. However, the trustees recognize this sum may only be achieved by building on reserves through operating surpluses that may be subject to funder grant condition restraints.

Details of any deficit

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and • to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
