Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: To provide early intervention and prevention to people who experience homelessness or are at risk. We do this through the delivery of our services: Hospital Outreach Service supporting patients who are homeless or at risk, providing a housing and welfare service on the wards and into the community. Our Counselling and Psychotherapy Service provides free counselling to people who experience trauma. Our Education Service provides a wide range of courses in arts and social subjects as a pathways into further education.

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: To help to prevent and alleviate poverty, homelessness and social exclusion by advancing the social welfare of vulnerable and excluded people in Glasgow and its environs through the delivery of intervention and support services. To advance education by providing and facilitating access to courses and opportunities for learning, training skills development and positive activity through which vulnerable people in Glasgow and its environs can achieve greater autonomy and more fully realise their potential. To advance the health and well-being of vulnerable people in Glasgow and its environs by providing and making accessible to them holistic, therapeutic, health and support services.
