Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The purpose of the charity is to relieve the mental and physical distress of any adult who has suffered from child sexual abuse and who identifies as male or where their gender identity prevents them accessing other survivor services.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

We raise funds to maintain and develop our charity, raising awareness in the community and online.

We raise awareness of childhood sexual abuse among adults who identify as male or where their gender identity prevents access of other survivor services.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We were busy promoting our online services and raising awareness about childhood sexual abuse among males.

Times have been difficult for the organisation. Due to a change in management and difficulty securing funding, it has been increasingly difficult to plan for the future. We have recruited a new trustee who has lots of experience with developing projects and we hope this will help with the organisation's development and direction.

We continue to be in contact with the CPG for adult survivors of CSA and are planning to apply to become members of the group in the next couple of months.

Finances continue to be healthy so we are considering employing a member of staff who can help develop the organisation and get news of what we can provide out into the community. We are also planning to do a recruitment drive so that we have volunteers in place to manage the demand from adult survivors.
