What the charity does: The charity is a Rainbow unit which delivers the Girlguiding programme to girls aged between 4 and 7. The unit meets once per week during term time, and runs trips and residential events for the girls. A common programme framework is followed which offers activities for girls to experience across six general areas: health and wellbeing, creative expression, taking social action, having adventures, skills for living, and self-awareness. The method for delivery consistently uses five essential ingredients: the programme is varied and balanced, girls work together in small groups, they are encouraged to be self-governing and to be involved in decision making, care for the individual and a shared commitment to a common standard which encourages proactive citizenship.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'
