Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education'

What the charity does: We are set up to provide educational, creative and leisure opportunities for our membership. We draw upon the skills, knowledge and expertise of our members to provide the courses and activity groups requested by them. Courses and activity groups available include art, foreign languages, photography, horticulture, crafts, reading for pleasure, sign language, history and walking plus others such as bridge, golf, family history, yoga and table tennis. These are part of over thirty activities that are available to our membership.

Beneficiaries: 'Older People'

Objectives: the advancement of education and in particular the education of older people and those retired from full time work by all means including associated activities conducive to learning and personal development
