Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: We are a community choir specialising in music from Eastern Europe. We rehearse weekly and give two public concerts a year. Membership is by subscription. there are no auditions. Several of our singers come from Eastern Europe and our choir provides the opportunity for people from diverse communities to meet each other and make music together.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the Society shall be to promote, develop and maintain public education in and appreciation of choral singing in all its aspects, with particular emphasis on the music of Eastern Europe.
