What the charity does: The Medasi Foundation is a charitable organisation established to provide educational scholarships. Each year, scholarships are awarded to students who apply through the foundation's scholarship application process. The selection is based on criteria such as academic achievement and financial need. While the foundation typically supports students pursuing nursing or teacher training, exceptions are made for applicants with strong ties to Medasi's educational projects, especially those who have been actively involved in the foundation's work over time. Tuition fees are paid directly to the educational institutions on behalf of the students. Many scholarship recipients are known to the foundation through its school programs. The Foundation also coordinates educational projects aimed at improving student achievement and teaching practices, particularly in Science. These projects are international in scope, linking schools in Ghana with partner schools in Scotland.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: Promote the health, education and well-being of the residents of Twewaa and surrounding villages. Promote educational improvement by encouraging and assisting the local population in educational practice.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
