TRUSTEES REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDING 31 MARCH 2026

2519(Strathmore) Squadron, Air Training Corps

2519(Strathmore) Squadron is one of the Air Training Corps Squadrons which make up Central Scotland Wing, Air Training Corps, which comprised 17 Squadrons and 4 Detached Flights spread throughout the Counties of Perth and Kinross, Fife, City of Dundee, Stirlingshire. The Wing now has an average strength of 450 cadets.

Cadets enjoy a wide range of activities including air experience training, glider training, sports and athletics, drill and United Kingdom and Overseas Camps, International Air Cadet Exchange, Air Cadet Pilot Navigation Scheme and the prestigious Air Cadet Flying Scholarship Scheme which offers 12 hours of fixed wing flying training.

Countless young men and women receive their first taste of flying and gliding through the Air Cadet Corps, and once these seeds are sown many embark on a flying or engineering or other trade career in the Royal Air Force or with civilian airlines or Government Agencies. Former Air cadets have been successful in reaching the highest ranks in the Royal Air Force and also the most prestigious flying jobs such as test pilots and the Red Arrows Aerobatic Display Team. Several cadets from not only 2519 Squadron but from across the Wing and Corps have served operational tours both in flying and ground operations in Iraq and Afghanistan, Libya, Cyprus and Syria.

There have also been other former cadets carrying out ground and sea duties in these theatres of operations as members of the Royal Navy and Army.

We have several cadets going through further education at universities and further Learning Colleges and one former cadet is a serving Officer with Police Scotland.

Cadets in the Squadron have progressed well through the exam classification syllabus set by the Air Training Corp and through the rank process being promoted to Corporal, Sergeant and Flight Sergeant.

In the reporting year of 01April2025 till 31March2026, 2519 Squadron have had a very busy year right from the start of the year, when on 02 April, three Cadets were presented Music Badges by Wing Commander Kyle, the first of these badges for many years. The Cadets and badges were, Sgt Cook for drums, Cpl Campbell for pipes and Brown for Clarinet.

Between 04 and 12 April, Sgt S Kimber and 2 Cadets attended a Regional Easter Camp at Garelochhead.

Between 25 and 27 April, 2 Cadets attended a Blue Badge Camp at Leuchars Station.
