Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

Aid for Education supports its partner in Rwanda in providing relief, shelter, and aid to families in the east of the country. Aid for Education assists children in Rwanda in accessing education who would otherwise be unable to afford it.

Main Activities

Aid for Education raises funds in the UK to support the work of its partner, helping some of Rwanda's poorest children and their families; children whose families cannot afford to support them in their desire to gain access to education, basic medical care, or shelter. Aid for Education supports a nursery and primary school and also supports a women's farming project, a goat income generating project and a microfinance project.

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

SCIO Constitution

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees can be appointed with the decision of current charity trustees.

Achievements and performance

Through donations and fundraising events, Aid for Education continued to grow and maintain Tubarere Nursery and Primary School.

The charity also raised funds to support income-generating projects in the local community and help more women through the microfinance project.

Aid for Education has also continued to support children through the sponsorship programme, enabling families to pay school fees and other education costs.

This year Aid for Education has paid school fees for secondary students and for nursery and primary students studying at Tubarere school as well as one student at university.

This year also, we paid health insurance for families and supported women in micro finance.

Through donations and fundraising events, a bus has also been bought for Tubarere School.

Financial review

Statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Aid for Education does not have a fixed reserve level, but believes it is important to have a reserve in case of unexpected circumstances.

Details of any deficit

No deficit in the year

Donated facilities and services

Individuals, sponsors, and fundraising events

Future plans

Aid for Education plans continue to support the growth of Tubarere Nursery and Primary School and support more children in their education.

The organisation plans to extend the income-generating projects to support more women and families, in particular, the microfinance scheme and to support the community farming project.

The organisation also plans to support more families through child sponsorship and medical insurance.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] - which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or - to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
