Chairman's Report
for the Year Ended 31 March 2025

Although our programmes had been completed by the end of March 2024. As part of our sustainability plan, it took a further six months to support the transition of Chance For Change Malawi, an international NGO, to Mwayi Osintha a local run NGO. This involved the transfer of registrations and the maintenance of a skeleton staff team to set up the programmes that the new organisation had decided to run. By the close of the FY in March 2025, this process was fully complete and as a result, Chance For Change no longer has a presence in Malawi, but the new local NGO Mwayi Osintha continues to run programmes for victims of human trafficking .

FY 2024/25 has been a year that has seen us coming to an end of our contracted obligations and fulfilling our final governance commitments. Our programmes in Nepal have been satisfactorily concluded with all expected outputs being either met or exceeded. Whilst it is sad for the organisation to be ending its work, we can be very satisfied with what has been achieved in the past fifteen years in an increasingly challenging environment for small NGOs.

Although, it has been clear that we never recovered full capacity after the pandemic, we nevertheless managed to achieve notable outcomes for a significant amount of people in developing countries and can be proud of that.

Finally, I would like to wish Greg and Andy the best of luck with their future plans and thank them for fifteen years of commitment and hard work.

Vikram Setia

Chairman, Chance For Change.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Chance for Change

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2025 set out on pages four to ten.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention :

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
