What the charity does: Our charity is set up to deliver Girlguiding locally, providing girls and young women with a safe, supportive environment where they can build confidence, develop life skills, make friendships and have fun. We help young people reach their full potential and become active, responsible members of their communities. We do this through weekly meetings, outdoor activities, skills-based challenges, trips and residential experiences, all led by trained volunteers. Our programme encourages teamwork, leadership, resilience and wellbeing, while giving girls opportunities to try new things and develop independence. We aim to be inclusive, welcoming girls from a wide range of backgrounds, and we work closely with families and the wider community to ensure a positive and enriching experience for all involved.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The aim of guiding is to promote the instruction of girls and all classes in the principles of discipline, loyalty and good citizenship.
