Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: We were established to preserve and restore local heritage buildings and enable them to be open to the public. To this end we own and lease 2 important historical buildings these we maintain and preserve for the benefit of all. We hold educational and social events within the buildings. We maintain an archive of documents associated with the history of this important heritage site. We encourage local people to volunteer at the site to increase their knowledge of the local heritage. We work in partnership with other organisations in the area to encourage a greater understanding of our heritage.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To restore, conserve and preserve for the public benefit and in particular the benefit of the people of Argyll and Bute, the Argyll Mausoleum at Kilmun Parish Church, a class B listed building of architectural and historical importance.
