ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

Throughout the year we developed new classes and workshops within our curriculum/timetable. The focus now is to sustain and develop our performance and training companies at all levels and ages. While trying to embrace a very different approach to learning, it is very obvious that the last couple of years has seen a vast change in expectations, stamina and work ethic. While many long for a return to a pre covid life digital development has made this impossible as we steam ahead to a new AI horizon.

Firstly, we will update on last year's future plans.

1. Refurbish studio -all areas now decorated new lighting and sound installed in both studios. Due to ongoing roof repairs and alterations new signage is on hold.
2. We staged our Masterclass Summer intensives in July .which were well attended but not full. We will develop this project during the summer break.
3. Developed our partnership with the OVO Hydro / [REDACTED] for Xmas 24.
4. New website now active and being updated monthly . Registration now for all courses available online.
5. Redevelopment of SQA courses on hold due to SQA maintains the status quo and ongoing strike action
6. We still strive to keep students positive and proactive in challenging times.
7. Development of wellness sessions for secondary age.

Development of our associates scheme now sees 14 ballet scholars and 22 jazz scholars attend free weekly training with 7 members now also part of Scottish ballet and SDTA associate training with 3 being accepted into The Dance school of Scotland. We plan to develop this in 2025 through community outreach.

Again, we were well represented in Festive productions and tours with graduates appearing in leading roles alongside our youngest performers making their professional stage debut. We performed again at 'GO DANCE' at the Theatre Royal Glasgow(postponed in January due to the storm) and developed our school's outreach..

Forthcoming developments in 2025 will be to utilise our studio theatre for more inhouse productions - with the diminishing number of venues both small and large scale this facility will be invaluable for both student productions and fundraisers . It has a capacity of 80 and the design of our centre ensures we can create an efficient performance space.

Our graduates continue to forge hugely successful careers worldwide with many now in national tours, west end and TV contracts and now taking leading roles in West end and touring Musicals.

We have sustained our registration numbers and now need to work at enrolling secondary pupils.

It is still worrying the lack of members from senior school age; many want to be famous and don't see the point of working hard to create opportunities. We will continue to create follow through opportunities to professional performances this year saw some of our Graduates again feature in Motherwell's Easter Panto including choreographic credits another HNC Student has taken on an apprentice role and our juniors appeared in small roles in several tv productions plus national advertising campaigns.

We must invest in our full-time programme in 2025. Pain and simple numbers need to improve to survive long term.

Teachers

We strive to maintain a strong cohort of professional practitioners, however this is proving hard to sustain due to demand for mature performers. We are proud to have a commensurate professional team, but it is hard to maintain. This year we welcomed [REDACTED]

Changing trends within our industry highlights the need for students to continually seek show time to the detriment of training/development time. We are planning an annual away day to look at new ideas in delivery of technique as the old exam structure is in need of an overhaul to sustain interest and focus.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The Trustees of the charity have set the reserves policy at a level so that there are sufficient funds to cover:

1. Twelve months of operations in the event of any unplanned closure and its impact on beneficiaries and other financial commitments;
2. Fluctuations in annual projected income; and
3. Unforeseeable and unexpected financial commitments, such as emergency repairs and renewals.

FUTURE PLANS

Financially we are stable and many of our developments have been highly successful however some need refocused and reworked in 2024/25.

As we launch our new timetable for 24/25, we will introduce our adult timetable including:

- Dancercise - Highly successful.
- Barre Blast - not continuing.
- Tap Attack- cancelled due to teacher leaving country.
- Showstoppers choir - renamed Musical Maniacs resuming August.
- Develop our scholarship programme for both part time and full-time courses.- Highly successful and developing in 2025.
- Further Promote our outreach programme.- Highly Successful

We go into our new year with an open mind to the changes coming in a new age of AI and ready to nurture our performers of the future .

Sincere thanks to everyone who has been so supportive over the last few years. Here's to Jazzart's resilience and a prosperous and healthy future.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention :

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
