Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Starcatchers' vision is that Scotland's youngest children, those from birth – 5 years old, realise their rights through arts and creative experiences that bring joy and wonder, igniting curiosity in early childhood. Our mission is to inspire our youngest children, those from birth – 5 years old, through their engagement and participation in high quality live performances and arts experiences that reflect their needs, interests and voice. and that these experiences enable them to realise their rights, regardless of where they live or their background. Starcatchers produces innovative, beautiful, collaborative arts and creative experiences that babies and young children share with their parents and carers. Engaging with and participating in these positive shared activities brings joy and wonder, fostering the understanding that very young children are creative agents with their own capabilities and voices.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: To support, research, develop and create performances and arts experiences for babies and young children and their parents, carers, education and support provides and provide training and professions opportunities for educators.
