Structure, governance and management

a. Constitution

The company is registered as a charity with the Office of the Scottish Charities Regulator, having been incorporated on 21 June 2011. There have been no changes to the objectives since that date.

b. Method of Appointment or Election of Trustees

The management of the company is the responsibility of the Trustees who are elected and co-opted under the terms of the Memorandum and Articles of Association.

c. Organisational Structure and Decision Making

The Trustees during the period are shown on the 'Reference and Administrative Details' page. The Trustees meet on a regular basis to review and administer the operations of the company.

d. Related Party Relationships

None of the Trustees are related to or have business interests in the contractors employed by the company.

e. Risk Management

The Trustees have assessed the major risks to which the company is exposed and are satisfied that the systems and procedures are in place to mitigate exposure as appropriate.

Objectives and activities

The purpose of the charity is to raise funds to provide an annual gala day for the children and community.

Achievements and performance

The gala committee spend all year raising funds through local events, asking businesses to donate to help out with the costs so that ticket prices can be kept down. This covers costs of a food bag, ice cream and wristband for rides on the shows all day long for the kids taking part in the gala court.

Financial review

The committee meet monthly to complete a review of the finances and discuss the fund raising and spending for the gala day.

Independent Examiner's Report

Year ended 30 June 2024

I report to the trustees on my examination of the financial statements of Wallyford Children's Gala Committee ('the charity') for the year ended 30 June 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the company are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the requirements of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 ('the 2005 Act'), the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act'). You are satisfied that the accounts of the company are not required by charity or company law to be audited and have chosen instead to have an independent examination.

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 44(1)(c) of the 2005 Act. In carrying out my examination I have followed the requirements of Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

Independent examiner's statement

Since the charity is required by company law to prepare its accounts on an accruals basis and is registered as a charity in Scotland your examiner must be a member of a body listed in Regulation 11(2) of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a registered member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants which is one of the listed bodies.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
