Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: The objectives of Crossroads Church are the furtherance of the Christian religion in accordance with the biblical teach of Jesus Christ. The church has been able to fulfil its commitments to both the community which it serves and to the wider work of the Christian church by holding weekly religious services and making opportunities for the development of young people through separate activities. Our community has engaged in local outreach as well as international mission trips abroad. We have sought to engage with the larger Christian community in Edinburgh as well as serving the people of our home congregation, through fellowship, acts of service and individual discipleship.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The furtherance of the Christian religion in accordance with the biblical teaching of Jesus Christ. The outworking of this will include a clear presentation of the teaching of scripture, acts of service for the benefit of others, local community development, international outreach and acts of service, and networking with the wider Christian community.

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The Trust was set up by Crossroads Church and was recognised as a Scottish charity with effect from 23 November 2011.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The Trustees shall have power to appoint members of the congregation to be trustees. Three of the Trustees shall be office bearers; namely, the Chairman, the Secretary and the Treasurer. The Chairman, the Secretary and the Treasurer shall be appointed by the Trustees in consultation with the congregation and the Leadership Team according to the talents and abilities required by the post. If the number of Trustees falls below three at any time or if any of the office bearer posts become vacant, then the Trustees must appoint or elect a new Trustee or Trustees without delay. If any of the Trustees ceases to be a member of the congregation, he or she shall cease to be a Trustee.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The objectives of Crossroads Church are the furtherance of the Christian religion in accordance with the biblical teachings of Jesus Christ.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The outworking of this will include a clear presentation of the teaching of scripture, acts of service for the benefit of others, local community development and networking with the wider Christian community.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The church has been able to fulfil its commitments to both the community which it serves and to the wider work of the Christian church by holding weekly religious services and making opportunities for the development of young people through separate activities. Our community has engaged in local outreach as well as international mission trips abroad. We have sought to engage with the larger Christian community in Edinburgh as well as serving the people of our home congregation through fellowship, acts of service and individual discipleship.

Crossroads continued in its support of those in and around our community by helping two families that moved to the UK, in part due to the Ukraine war with Russia. The funds raised and gifted to these two families helped with expenses related to relocating. Crossroads was also able to restart its international missions in 2024 after a number of years off due to Covid.

Additionally, Crossroads received funds that were used to update old sound equipment and also continue its goal of reaching out to the community to share about the love of God.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The church aims to hold a reserve of £5000 which is estimated to be approximately two-months' expenditure.

Details of any deficit

In the event of the church being wound up for any reason, all net assets of the church remaining after the satisfying of all proper debts and liabilities will be made over to another religious Charitable Organisation as chosen by the Trustees in consultation with the leadership team (if the Trustees consider it appropriate).

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
