Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes an unincorporated charity.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The charity has a policy in place whereby the constitution of the board of trustees is reviewed on an annual basis. The trustees undertake an informal skills audit with a view to appointing new members.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The objective of the charity is to reach a cross-section of young people under twenty six and to encourage applications requesting funding towards projects for these young people to undertake activities anywhere in the world which they can demonstrate will be beneficial for their personal development. The Trust also continues to research into other charitable organisations which are committed to the same or similar aims in order to investigate potential projects undertaken by these organisations for which the Trust can provide financial support.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The aim of the Kirsten Scott Memorial Trust is to provide financial support to young people aged 26 or under in order for them to fulfil ambitions, enhance their personal development and make a positive contribution, either at home in the UK or overseas. We hope that beneficiaries will be able to enjoy rich new experiences which they would otherwise not be able to undertake, and in doing so create a fitting legacy for Kirsten. The Trustees consider applications across a broad range of areas including, but not limited to, the arts, sport, exploration and travel, volunteering, community projects and educational development. The Trustees meet quarterly to discuss applications and agree the awards.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

In the year ending 31 December 2024 the Kirsten Scott Memorial Trust made grants totaling £25. One award was made to Erskine Melville School to support them to undertake projects which enhanced their personal development. Further information about the projects undertaken by the young people is available on the website

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees establish the level of reserves that the charity ought to have. Reserves are needed to bridge the funding gaps between spending and receiving resources. The trustees will therefore consider the ideal level of operational reserves now the charity is established.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper
