Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: We want girls across Scotland to have the space and opportunities they need to grow in confidence. Girguiding is so much more than an after school activity or a way for girls to spend an evening. We give girls their own space as we want all girls to benefit from opportunities to grow with being a part of girguiding. Members love being in an all-girl group because it gives them space to be themselves, try new things and share what it is like growing up as a girl in today's world. At their weekly meetings they choose what they want to do with their friends. Girls love earning badges which show they have thrown themselves into a new sport, explored a new issue or a new skill. We give girls a voice for providing opportunities to spread out, make a difference and do things that will boost their CV. We empower girls to become leaders themselves and make their voices heard on issues that affect them.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: Promoting the instruction of girls of all classes in the principles of discipline, loyalty and good citizenship

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention, other than disclosed below 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: • to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations • to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and have not been met 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
