Aims

To pursue the objectives of Ayrshire South Guide Association that is to assist girls and young women to fulfil their potential to take an active and responsible role in society. We have continued to promote these ideals.

Activities

The main activities this year have been:

Throughout the year we have engaged in a varied programme again. We have worked through skills builders and UMAs and non programme related topics. Our girls have grown in confidence and have developed new skills. They have enjoyed crafts, learned new songs. They have participated in district and county events.

The above unit is an unincorporated association. It has no written constitution but operates in accordance with the Guiding Manual published by Girlguiding UK, the operating name of the Guide Association.

Its trustees are the volunteer adult leaders appointed as Guiders in terms of the said Guiding Manual.

The charity's main income is subscription income. The charity aims to hold sufficient cash funds to meet all expenditure due and anticipated during a 2 month period.

Independent Examination Certificate

I have examined the Trustees' Report, the Units Accounting records, and the Receipts & Payments Account and Statement of Balances that are attached as part of this document.

My examination has been carried out under Section 44(1)(c) of the Charities & Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005

To the best of my knowledge & belief, and in accordance with the information & explanations given to me:

- a) The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 does not apply and therefore the Unit is eligible to have an independent examination.
- b) The Receipts & Payments Account and Statement of Balances have been properly prepared from the records of the Unit and are in agreement with them,
- c) The Receipts & Payments Account & Statement of Balances comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations and with the Unit's effective Constitution.

* In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect, the requirements of Section 33 of the 2005 Act and Regulations 4 and 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met.

* In the course of my examination the following matters of a material nature have come to my attention:
