Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The charity, a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation and was recognised as a Scottish charity with effect from 7 November 2012. The charity is administered in accordance with the terms of its Constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Appointment and removal is in accordance with the constitution. Trusteeship is open to any individual who is a member of the organisation. There appointment will be voted on at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) by the charity's membership. Under the constitution there should be a minimum of 5 and a maximum of 12 Trustees. At each AGM 4 of the charity trustees must retire from office but they can be reappointed.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The purposes of the charity are as set out in Object 4 of the Constitution, in particular are to advance the knowledge of farming heritage by promoting and encouraging the skills of ploughing the land by traditional and modern ploughs, in East Lothian and the surrounding areas.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Our club last year ran a charity road run for Maggie's Edinburgh. The route was 35 miles through East Lothian. The local paper advertised the route and we were delighted with all the crowds that came and supported our cause. We held a film night showing the film made from our 40th anniversary ploughing match. A great night was had by all with the proceeds being donated to Maggie's Edinburgh.

We attended many local shows where our club banner was pride of place, Our annual ploughing match went without a hitch with 62 ploughmen entered.

Our Facebook page was kept up to date with all of our events and is proving a good media source for the public to be able to contact us and find further information.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The unrestricted funds represent income earned and donations received but not yet utilised in supporting charitable activities.

As a result of the surplus for the period the Association has unrestricted funds of £12,981 (2023: £13,925). The Trustees consider these funds are sufficient to enable the Association to continue for the forthcoming year.

Details of any deficit

N/A

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Trustees donate their time and attend Haddington Agricultural show to promote the annual ploughing match. They also help to mark out the field before the match day and to tidy up afterwards. The trustees also donate raffle prizes for our raffle on the match day. No trustee received remuneration in respect of their services as trustee and two trustees (2023: one trustee) was reimbursed expenses of £1,554 (2023: £1,177).

██████████, one of the trustees, received £350 in the year for administrative, financial and secretarial services to the charity.

APPENDIX 1

Other optional information

The Association is a membership organisation and in 2024 the membership was 22 (2023: 23).

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
