Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	Throughout the year we remained in contact with performers, promoters and venues so as to support our planned programme of concerts. We continued fundraising in support of our charitable objectives and we maintained a dialogue with our prospective audience so that they were kept informed of our planned programme and had an opportunity to supply feedback on their experience.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We planned four concerts during the year ended 31st March, 2025. The first, by [REDACTED] was cancelled owing to him being stormbound. The second by [REDACTED] showed the audience's appreciation of a single, 45 minute work. The third, which replaced the cancellation, was a sell out, demonstrating the popularity of a pianist playing a concerto, accompanied by an ensemble playing a cutdown version of the orchestral score. And the final concert, again a sell out, showed the audience's willingness to engage in a demonstration of 45 minutes of skilful, light hearted improvisation. We hope to further develop these achievements in the future.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]
