Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The purpose of Scouting is to contribute to the development of young people in achieving their full physical, intellectual, social and spiritual potentials, as individuals, as responsible citizens and as members of their local, national and international communities.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

To provide a varied and fun program for all sections, such as camps, sleepovers, practical skills and inter group activities.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The group continues to run at capacity and a waiting list is in place for all 4 sections as we added Squirrels in October 24.

We have continued to provide a program which covers the learning requirements for badgework and still maintains the fun element.

Here are some of the events and experiences the sections have had

Squirrels – Christmas party, learning about other countries, learning how to pack a bag for their first camp.

Beavers – Bonnyside Farm, visit to Muiravonside for pond dipping and finding mini beasts, Canoeing, visit to pets at home, joint camps with the cubs, district beaver day, district Christmas film outing.

Cubs - Visit from community police, learning to be safe online, bat walk at Muiravonside, Orienteering at Beecraigs, Canoeing, e, joint camps with the beavers, district Christmas film outing.

Scouts - visit to Beecraigs Country Park, learned and improved their camping skills with firelighting training and camp cooking sessions, canoeing and kayaking, sleepover at Glasgow Science Centre, District quiz, district haunted camp, winter camp.

All 3 sections attended a Sleepover on a tall ship in Glasgow, and our Squirrels joined us for our annual group camp held at Fordell Firs.
