Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: We operate weekly meetings for girls aged between 5 and 7, on a program set by Girlguiding UK to promote confidence, kindness, and respect. Girls can then earn badges in line with activities completed, and we also sometimes do trips, which are educational and enjoyable for their age group.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: Promoting the instruction of girls of all classes in the principles of discipline, loyalty and good citizenship

Geography

- Main operating location: City of Edinburgh
- Geographical spread: A specific local point, community or neighbourhood

Unit leader: Holly Jones

Charity Address
Currie Girlguiding Unit
154a Lanark Road West
EH14 5NY

The above charity (unit) is an unincorporated association. It has no written constitution, but operates in accordance with the policies and procedures, published by Girlguiding, the operating name of the Guide Association.

Its trustees are the volunteer adult leaders trained and appointed as per the Girlguiding policies and procedures. Update training is available throughout the year.

The charity's aim is to deliver a programme of informal education in accordance with the ethos and principles of Girlguiding. During the above period the charity provided this programme to 20 girls.

The charity's main income is subscription income. The charity aims to hold sufficient cash funds to meet all expenditure due and anticipated during a 2 month period. If the accounts for the year differ substantially from those of the previous year, add in a short explanation as to why (for example, a trip or large camp).

During the year the trustees did not receive any remuneration.

Independent examiners report

For the year ended 30th June 2025

For 2nd Currie Rainbows

Charity number SCO44146

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiners Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiners Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
