Structure, governance and management

HALLA is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO). It is governed by its constitution which was adopted on 28th February 2013 and updated on 16th January 2022.

Appointment of Trustees

Trustees are elected at the Annual General Meeting. Under the constitution there must be a minimum of 5 members and a maximum of 14 members and they must be a member of the organisation.

Management

The trustees are responsible for the strategic direction and governance as well as the day to day running of HALLA.

Objectives

Charitable Purpose

The object or charitable purpose of HALLA is:

1. To advance education by promoting learning opportunities particularly in the fields of health living, improving literacy, active citizenship, the recognition of achievement and employability. Also, by promoting and managing a broad range of non-formal but structured group learning activities for public benefit.
2. To advance citizenship or community development by supporting people of all ages, abilities, and backgrounds to become more involved in planning their own learning programmes and their community development. This may be through a programme of group activities or by supporting individuals to participate in community development activities throughout the city.

Activities, Achievements and Performance

We are pleased to report that the number and range of classes and groups offered at the centre has increased during the last year. Classes currently include: crafts, sewing, drama, walking groups, knit and natter, crochet, financial stability, 50+ gentle exercise and self-help felting. New classes introduced this year include: art for adults, computer skills, pyrography, exploring urban wildlife, a Maths club for P4 pupils and a creative writing class.

We continue to work closely with our local primary and secondary schools and have made financial contributions to both. The Breakfast Club for the most disadvantaged primary pupils was increased last August to four days a week and holiday breakfast packs made available to children who attended the Breakfast Club.

Strong links have also been established with Robert Gordon University, a fact which was highly commended by our local M.P. during his visit last December. Many of our volunteers are students at R.G.U. and a thank-you lunch was held for all our volunteers in June.

We continue to work on raising our profile. Several members attended a CAN (Come and Network) Day in September. As well as having a growing number of followers on Facebook, our website, halla.org.uk, is now active.

During the year Board members received further training on their roles and responsibilities from ACVO. Board Meetings are held monthly and the AGM was held in November 2024.

Financial Review

The financial objective of HALLA is to break even activity by activity unless an activity is recognised to be deficit funded and approved prior to its starting. Many new classes are started this way to allow HALLA to assess if there is sufficient interest for them to continue.

With the balance at the end of the year of £81,193, the trustees feel that we are well placed to continue to support financially our full range of activities. This balance is made up of a general reserve of £31,546 and total restricted reserves of £49,647. This is made up of £18,330 for the development of a multi-purpose studio; £7,113 and £3,577 from ACC and £7,111 from the Minibus charity for use in other projects in the community. There are Breakfast Club reserves of £2879 from the NHS, £284 from Tesco and £353 from ASDA. We are also holding £10,000 in the general reserves to cover 6 months running costs.

During the year HALLA received a donation from Aberdeen City Council's Christmas Festive Fund to support the Drama Group as well as donations for the Breakfast Club of £1200 from ASDA Grassroots Foundation and £375 from Tesco.

Approximately £5,000 was donated by HALLA to Kaimhill Primary School in June 2024. This was comprised of a cheque for £4000 with the balance made up in craft materials and school uniforms. A donation was also made to Harlaw Academy to support activities run by Harlaw Academy Youth Club.

Policy on Reserves

HALLA aims to maintain a financial reserve to cover six months activity.

Donated Facilities and Services

The trustees give their time freely to attend meetings and fulfil their specified roles. Many of the groups are led by volunteers. The Breakfast Club is manned exclusively by volunteers.

Trustee Remuneration and Expenses

Trustees have not charged expenses to attend board meetings and received no remuneration.

Future Plans

In the coming year we have a range of additional activities and classes we wish to provide. We plan to begin Saturday morning classes for children which would include an art class and guitar tuition. A chess club for children is also a possibility. Also planned are an evening Badminton group, a photography class and a class offering help in developing computer skills.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
