Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: The Piping Association aims to encourage young people of different learning abilities to get involved in activities that develop music skills, enhance their confidence and self esteem and develop positive behaviour as individuals and as a team member. To this end, a Summer School is run annually in July, along with an annual junior solo piping competition.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: To advance the arts by promoting interest in bagpipe playing among the youth of the district.
