The maximum number of trustees is 7 and the minimum is 3. At the moment the charity has 4 trustees but we have two new trustees that we wish to appoint in the next year and an additional trustee who is a qualified accountant.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The advancement of education. The advancement of health. The advancement of citizenship or community development, the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended. The advancement of environmental protection or improvement, the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

We have developed our on-line presence and we are now getting a lot of people visiting the website and engaging with the charity. We have continued to promote cycling in the community and have written many letters with regards safer cycle networks. We are working in schools talking about the link between carbons produced in the UK and the consequences for the African continent. We conducted a school based environmental art competition which is published on website.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

1. Continue to develop the administration required to take the charity forward.
2. To use the online presence of the Charity to explore the link between carbon emissions, the warming of Africa and the loss of habitat in Africa.
3. Working with schools and the local community to promote the benefits of cycling including T-shirt design, making posters sponsored cycle rides etc..
4. To make firm links with health, education and environmental links in Africa.
