Achievements and Performance

During the session the Group operated 5 sections:

- Squirrel Drey (4 years to 6 years)
- Beaver Colony (6 years to 8 years)
- Cub Pack (8 years to 10 years)
- Scout Troop (10 years to 14 years)
- Explorer Scout Unit (14 years to 18 years)
- Six section Team Leaders, seven section Team Members, one Young Leader and a Group Lead Volunteer support the Group across all sections.

All adult volunteers (including section Team Leaders and Team Members) are required to join the Scottish Government's Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG) scheme, complete a personal enquiry, provide two references and attend an interview with experienced Scouters. Further, all volunteers are required to complete learning to ensure they are properly equipped for the role they are in. This includes safeguarding, safety, GDPR. Further, section Team Leaders and Team Members are required to complete the Scouts 'First Response' course as a minimum requirement for providing first aid. Additional learning is available and is tailored to the volunteer's role.

Young leaders (aged 14-18 and volunteering as part of the Explorer Scouts Young Leader Programme) are required to complete learning on safety and safeguarding as a minimum, with further learning available as required or desired.

In Scouting, the word Programme has a wide interpretation. The Programme is not just about the activities that Squirrels, Beavers, Cubs, Scouts and Explorers can take part in but also the method used to deliver these activities and our motivation in doing them.

What we offer to young people in all sections is a Balanced Programme; a range of activities, events and experiences built around six Programme Zones. All young members work towards The Chief Scout's Award; Acom for Squirrels, Bronze for Beavers, Silver for Cubs, Gold for Scouts and Platinum/Diamond, potentially followed by the Kings Scout Award in Explorers.

In addition to the weekly programme, we have run a number of trips and camps over the year which all relevant members have had the opportunity to attend.

Financial Review

The Scout Group generated income for the period of £32,276 (2024: £20,836) and met charitable and eligible costs of £21,010 (2024: £14,974) resulting in a surplus of £11,266 (2024: surplus £5,862).

RISK MANAGEMENT

The trustees recognise a range of risk categories that could affect the Scout Group (governance, operational, financial, external, compliance and regulatory risks). To mitigate such risks, the trustees have created a risk register to manage these and to ensure the prosperity of the Group. The risk register is reviewed regularly by the trustees to ensure it continues to adequately protect against possible risks to the Group. A copy of the risk register is available upon request.

GRANTS, DONATIONS AND FUNDRAISING

During the year under review the Group received the following grants and donations:

- An anonymous donation of £500, to be used to support a Scout or Explorer who would like to attend Kandersteg but would not be able to due to financial hardship.

The Trustees wish to record their thanks to this anonymous donor for their kind donation.

Future Plans

The Group has performed well over the last year and the trustees are looking to build on this success. In the coming year, the Group will aim to continue expanding its provision of Scouting beyond their current reach and support young people from other, nearby parishes into Scouting so they can benefit from learning essential skills for life.

While the Group is currently in a strong position with the number and distribution of volunteers across the sections, we will continue recruiting new leaders to support our current provision and any expansion over the coming year.

The Group has continues to plan its first international camp at Kandersteg International Scout Centre in Switzerland, which is booked for our Scouts and Explorers in July 2025. In anticipation of a successful adventure, initial discussions have begun for a potential future camp at Kandersteg International Scout Centre in 2029.

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
